The Crawford Funeral.

The body of the late Captain Richard Crawford will arrive in Martin's Ferry from Burlington, Iowa, this afternoon, at 4:45 o'clock. The funeral will occur to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the United Presbyterian church of Martin's Ferry. Members of the Septuagenarian club, with which the deceased was affiliated, will be honorary pallbearers. The interment will follow at the Grove burying ground.

Patent Trolley Wheel.

Mr. Charles Hirsch, an expert machinist and former manager of the Wheeling & Elm Grove railway, has invented a trolley wheel which will make Mr. Hirsch famous, if it proves the success predicted for it. Mr. Hirsch's device has been patented and it will be given a trial on the Wheeling & Elm Grove line some time this week. The wheels in use now seldom last over six weeks, but Mr. Hirsch's are said to be good for two years' service, which assertion, if proved a fact, will cause the invention to be eagerly sought.

Camp Ground Association.

The mid-winter meeting of the Women's Camp Ground Association was held on Saturday. It was decided to have an entertainment and supper at the Odd Fellows' hall Friday evening, March 17. The ladies are engaged in the laudable undertaking of raising money to pay off the debt of the camp meeting association, and they will do it in a few years, if they continue as they have so well begun. Another meeting of the ladies' association will be held on next Saturday, at the home of Mrs. M. Jeffers, at which time all members are urged to be present.

JUST A REMINDER

That Winter is not Dead and Buried Given Wheeling Yesterday.

Just as a reminder that winter is not dead and buried, Wheeling was given a taste of weather yesterday that seems better suited for January than March. Last evening shortly after 6 o'clock, snow began falling and continued in a desultory sort of way throughout the night, and at 2 o'clock this morning there is about two inches of it on the ground. The barometer is falling and either rain or continued snow may be expected to-day.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is recommended by many physicians. It cures the worst cough or cold, and it is always reliable.

THE GRAND JURY

Of the Criminal Court Reported Last Evening.

THERE ARE MANY INDICTMENTS

As Well as a Number of not True Bills. Marshall Carrington Indicted for the Main Street Burglary—A Witness Sent to Jail Upon Refusing to Testify Before the Grand Jury. List of the Indictments.

The March term of the Ohio county criminal court, Judge Huges, opened yesterday morning, and the grand jury completed its labors at 6:40 o'clock last night. Not true bills were returned against a number of saloonists, indicted for Sunday selling, and none of the bills were of an important public nature.

The jury was empaneled as follows: Foreman, John Waterhouse, Sam B. McKee, Michael Rupp, Henry Wolf, Louis Hartong, G. O. Smith, Valentine Belfus, Fred Happy, B. S. McLure, John Baird, James Howard, Thomas J. Ball, M. Horkheimer, Scott Fair, Carl Hamilton and William Goering.

The jury's findings were as follows:

FELONIES—TRUE BILLS.

Marshall Carrington, burglary, Nos. 1 and 2.

H. E. Bachman.

Ed. Darby, Nos. 1 and 2.

Will and George Philabum.

William Newman.

Joe Triggola, Henry Belmont and Frank Randall; Walker Tutt, Frank Randall, Henry Belmont and Joe Triggola.

MISDEMEANORS—TRUE BILLS.

Angie Strong, Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

Dill McCormick, No. 1.

John McNamara.

F. B. Fickerson.

George Saltzer.

NOT TRUE BILLS.

John Thoner, Julius Lohse, Nos. 1 and 2; Aug. Huseman, McFadden & Smith, John Robrecht, Nos. 1 and 2; Frank Hennis, Joe Such, Nell Quinn, Mary Letzkus, M. Shwab, Nos. 1 and 2; W. F. K. Vogt, Louis Troesch, Julius Troesch, Henry J. Michael, Martin Flynn, Nos. 1 and 2; J. P. O'Mally, Nos. 1 and 2; Peter Hoe, Nos. 1 and 2; Jacob Vogler, Nos. 1 and 2; F. J. Healy, No. 1; Fred Meyer, Wm. Cully, J. B. Wilkie, Nos. 1 and 2; McCormick & Monnett, D. Goodfriend.

It developed that Marshall Carrington, the colored man charged with breaking into a North Main street house, had also been indicted for the same offense in Mercer county, July 24, 1898.

H. E. Bachman, against whom a true bill was returned, was released last night on $1,000 bond, and Wilbur T. Clarke, a witness in the case against him, was held in $1,000 bond for his appearance, his surety being W. J. Cotts.

A ripple of excitement was caused at the court house in the afternoon through the refusal of a witness to testify before the grand jury. Milton Parker is employed as a barkeeper at Angie Strong's place, on Seventeenth street, and was called before the grand jury to testify. This he declined to do, whereupon he was brought before Judge Huges. To the judge's inquiry Parker responded:

"I guess you'll have to send me to jail until I think over it for awhile."

"Which the judge did."

THIS WAS QUICK WORK.

How Mr. Dovenor and Senator Elkins Relieved a Mexican War Veteran of Wheeling in the Last Hours of Congress.

Among the very last bills to go through both houses of Congress under suspension of the rules and to the President for signature, was that mentioned in the Intelligencer of Friday, for the relief of B. F. Vennum, a Mexican war veteran, residing in Wheeling. Representative Dovenor, as stated Friday, had secured a favorable report, and, watching his opportunity, put it upon its passage through the house. It went through in a jiffy, and at half-past 1 o'clock Saturday morning, Mr. Dovenor carried the bill over to the senate. Here Senator Elkins took charge of it. Taking it to the individual members of the proper committee, he soon had unanimous approval—so plain a case needed but little explanation—and by 5 o'clock in the morning the bill lacked but the President's signature to become a law. It was manifestly a proper measure, the old veteran having since 1847 been suffering under an injustice.

FAVORABLY CONSIDERED.

The Proposition of the U. S. Fertilizer Company for Garbage Reduction.

A meeting of the council committee on health was held last night for consideration of the proposition to cremate the city's garbage, submitted by the United States Fertilizer company, of which R. K. Giffen, of this city, is general manager. Mr. Giffen and other members of the company attended the meeting. They proposed to enter a contract with the city whereby they would agree to do the work for $3,000 per annum, provided the city furnishes free gas and water and hauls the offal to the crematory.

The committee considered the proposition favorably, realizing the need of expensive improvements to the crematory that can't be longer delayed, and it was decided to call the ordinance committee next Friday evening to meet jointly with the health committee and draft an ordinance embodying the Giffen proposition, which will be presented to council for action. The fertilizer people promise to cremate the garbage and refuse by sanitary methods.

THE RAILROADS.

The Cleveland Plaindealer says: It is reported that negotiations for the consolidation of the Wheeling & Lake Erie and the Cleveland, Canton & Southern railroads are pending. The Wheeling & Lake Erie wants to secure an entrance into Cleveland and a consolidation would bring this about. A meeting of the stockholders of the Cleveland, Canton & Southern road will be held in Cleveland within a few weeks and it is thought the matter will be brought up at that time.
